DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) The invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Huang (5,623,881). Huang discloses the use of a computer desk (20), comprising a cross-member and a pair of legs extending from opposite ends of the cross-member (12), defining a U-shaped base (fig.2); pair of vertical support posts (10) extending from the legs adjacent the cross-member, the legs being normal to plane defined by the U-shaped base; cross-beam and pair of arms extending from opposite ends the cross-beam, defining desk frame, arms being mounted on top of the vertical post adjacent the cross-beam, so that the arms of the desk frame extend substantially parallel to and above the legs of base; desktop (31) having a top surface and bottom surface, and pair of parallel rails disposed the bottom surface, the top surface being adapted for supporting computer equipment; and sliding track (15) assembly disposed between rails (151) and arms the desk frame, whereby the desktop slidable between a retracted position and an extended position in order to draw entire desktop towards a user's chair. See figures 1,3b, 5a and 5c.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 2-3 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. The following patents are cited to further show the state of the art with respect to computer desk: U.S Pat. No. US005909934A, US006269753B1, US006076473A, US006382745B1, US006474760B2, US006439657B1, US006398326B1.
